

Personal Data Consent Form for Membership of the Cornwall Faith Forum

I would like to become a member of the CFF (please tick)

It's free to become a member. Membership entitles you to vote at our Annual General Meeting but also helps us calculate our number of supporters and to provide an evidence base for our work.

Your privacy is important to us, and we want to communicate with all our members and supporters in a way which has their consent, and which is in line with UK law on data protection. As a result of a change in UK law, we now need your consent to how we contact you. Please fill in the contact details you want us to use to communicate with you:

You can grant consent to all the purposes above or the ones which you are specifically interested in. Where you do not grant consent we will not be able to use your personal data; except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm. You can find out more about how we use your data from our "Privacy Notice" which is available from our website www.dorkemmyrn.org.uk

You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting the Cornwall Faith Forum either by email cornwall.faithforum@truro.anglican.org, telephone 01872 274351 or post. Please note that all processing of your personal data will cease once you have withdrawn consent, other than where this is required by law, but this will not affect any personal data that has already been processed prior to this point.
